A minimum of 125 program credit hours are needed to satisfy the major. (See Degree Plan in the Texas College Catalog.)

OBJECTIVE: Students majoring in Criminal Justice are trained to seek employment opportunities with the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), Alcohol Tobacco and Firearms (ATF), U.S. Immigration and Naturalization, law enforcement agencies, correction facilities, and social service agencies—the traditional concentration; and to work in federal, state, country, municipal and private laboratories.

SOCIAL WORK

The Division of Business and Social Sciences offers programs of study leading to the Bachelor of Science or Bachelor of Arts degree in social work. A minimum of 125 program credit hours are needed to satisfy the major. (See Degree Plan in the Texas College Catalog.)

OBJECTIVES: The principal objective of the social work program is to prepare students for advanced social work practice. The program is designed to:

- Develop professional leaders through a social work program of direct instruction;
- Provide a curriculum that integrates academic and field-based training, allowing students to learn and apply theory concurrently;
- Provide a curriculum which will prepare students for immediate employment after the bachelor's degree; and
- Provide students with the knowledge necessary for pursuing advanced study in graduate and professional school.

SOCIOLOGY

Sociology explores the multiple functions, structures, and organizations of the social system that affect the social interaction of humans living in a rapidly changing society. The Sociology program prepares its graduates to enter careers in human services, business, commerce, education, research, and government, while providing students with knowledge about traditional human needs and those of the global society of the 21st century. Sociology students examine contemporary trends, evaluate emerging patterns of social interaction, formulate and/or modify social policies, identify internal and external change agents, study procedures of social control, and explore methods to resolve problems stemming from societal structural inequities and inequalities. A minimum of 125 program credit hours are needed to satisfy the major. Students completing the degree requirements will graduate with a Bachelor's of Science in Sociology. (See Degree Plan in the Texas College Catalog.)

OBJECTIVES: The Sociology Department offers students a basic knowledge of Sociology by:

- Enhancing skill development in scientific inquiry;
- Preparing graduates for graduate and/or professional school admission;
- Increasing skill in using sociology to understand everyday experiences; and
- Providing instructional support for the liberal arts core.

TEXAS COLLEGE

Mission Statement and Core Values

Texas College is a historical black college founded in 1894, by a group of CME ministers. Our mission, which continues to embody the principles of the Christian Methodist Episcopal Church, is to ensure that the student body experiences balanced, intellectual, psychological, social and spiritual development, aimed at enabling them to become active productive members of society where they live and work. (Recast and approved by the Board of Trustees at the Annual Meeting, April 15, 2011).

To address the mission, the College incorporates the core values of:

Academic Excellence – developing a culture of curiosity and creativity that will challenge the frontiers of teaching/learning; stimulate research; raise the level of analytical reasoning and inquiry; and enable students to acquire leadership, human relations, communications, and technology skills.

Integrity – instilling the pursuit of character, honesty and sincerity of purpose as the moral rubrics upon which the behaviors of our graduates and College family are anchored.

Perseverance – implanting diligence, enterprise and pride in the application of skills, knowledge and abilities developed during the course of study at Texas College.

Social Responsibility – promoting in the College community a conscious awareness that we are all stewards of the resources entrusted to our care.

Tolerance – emphasizing openness to divergent points of view, applying an eclectic approach to rational and analytical thinking.

Community Service – encouraging self-extension in service to others as the heart and soul of our educational enterprise.
