Baccalaureate and Commencement Ceremonies Set for April 30 and May 1 at Texas College

Texas College will hold its annual Baccalaureate and Commencement ceremonies to recognize, honor and celebrate the achievements of the 2010 graduating class. Baccalaureate, starting at 6:00 p.m., will be held on April 30 in the Martin Hall Auditorium on the campus of Texas College (2404 N, Grand Avenue, Tyler). Rev. Darryl F. Madlock, Sr. will be the speaker. Rev. Madlock is the pastor of St. James C.M.E. Church in Tyler, and he also serves as a Presiding Elder within the Tyler District of the Christian Methodist Episcopal Church. Commencement, beginning at 10:00 a.m., will be held at Caldwell Auditorium located at 300 S. College Avenue, Tyler. Bishop Ronald M. Cunningham will deliver the commencement address. Cunningham is the Chairman of the Board of Trustees at Texas College. He is also the Presiding Prelate of the Eighth Episcopal District of the CME Church in the State of Texas.

During Commencement, Texas College President, Dr. Dwight Fennell, will confer the Bachelor of Arts, the Bachelor of Science and Associate of Arts degrees to each student who has successfully completed educational requirements to receive the degree in his or her field of study. Presiding over the presentation of degree candidates will be Dr. Johnnye Jones, Vice President for Academic Affairs.

Both events are open to the public and President and Mrs. Fennell, and the Texas College Family extends an invitation to anyone desiring to attend.
